Annotated Bibliography Graphic Organizer

Directions: Complete the proper MLA citation and annotation for each source you read completely (even if you don't cite it in your paper).

Citation Info: Begin with author's last name, first name, or, if there is no author, move onto the title of the source.

Annotation Info: Summarize the central theme and scope of the book or article. Include one or more sentences that

- (a) How do you know the source is credible?
- (b) Who is the intended audience?
- (c) Compare/contrast this work with another you have cited;
- (d) Explain what kind of information you took from this source.
